	For centuries, as a way to ensure peace, happiness, long life, and prosperity, Tibetan Buddhists have created and flown prayer flags. As the wind blows the banner, it carries the prayers through the home, the neighborhood, and even the countryside, spreading joy and harmony everywhere. With this beautiful pack—which features a 96-page, four-color book that’s rich innbsp; history, traditions, sample prayers, quotes, and affirmations—people everywhere can do the same to enhance and spiritually balance their lives. Also included are two eight-foot-long prayer flags—one inscribed with traditional Tibetan Buddhists prayers, the other blank, so the user can personalize it in any way he or she wishes. It’s a unique and innovative format that adds a contemporary touch to an age-old practice.
